

Crafting and Fun in the Sun

New Leaf Cortijo

A 5 day creative adventure in Andalucia for 7-11's and their solo parent.

If you are a single parent or just fancy a few days away, just you and your child this may be just what you need

Monday 26th Oct– Friday 30th Oct 2020

An activity holiday for children to get involved with exciting craft Activities. Our aim is for the children to lose themselves in creating! (parents are more than welcome to get involved, or to lounge around by the pool)

In the afternoons there will be organised games such as treasure hunts, pool volley ball or just exploring the olive groves. In the evening we will all eat together and then enjoy massaoake, film night & disco night. Our rooms are limited, therefore this is a small group, which we hope will feel like extended family. The children will have activities and friends. The adults will have time to themselves but also creative and fun time with their kids.

Price includes: Accommodation (shared family rooms), all food & drink (inc. alcohol for the adults!) , craft & fun Activities.

Adults €240 children €260. Flights & transfers not included but transfers can be arranged
